NEW YEAR.

Another year, with swift and silent step, has passed by us, and is buried in the fatuousness of the past. But no less as was its tread, how many lives and hearts and hopes have been crushed beneath it! The sun which heralded the dawn of the past year, doubtless looked down upon thousands of honest resolves, to abandon vicious habits, to achieve prosperity, to win good names and deserve happiness; but the rays of its last sun-set gleamed amid the wreck of broken vows, ruined hopes, blasted fame and disappointed hopes. Shall the same programme adopt itself to the beginning and ending of the new year? The vices and crimes of the age appeal, for redress, to all that is good and true and noble in human nature. If each individual would firmly resolve upon self-reform; go honestly into analysis of his, or her character, and, with a firm purpose and a skilful hand, uproot evil passions and cast off evil habits, ere the close of the year, our moral vineyard would wear an aspect that would cheer the hearts of Christian philosophers and patriot statesmen. We have asylums for the insane, hospitals for the sick, homes for the indigent and reformatory institutions for the wicked and we may add, innumerable churches designed to be cities of refuge for all who would flee from the assaults of temptation and shun the evils that lie in wait for the weak and the heedless. Still, bodily infirmities multiply, moral ulcers make unclean the body social, whilst too many of those who seek the sanctuaries of the cities of refuge carry into them, the moral contagion—the petty vices that should have been shaken off at the threshold. Since, then, the world grows daily more corrupt, in spite of public charities and organized benevolences, we see no other hope for its moral improvement than is to be found in individual self-reform and that education of the heart and heart, conjointly, which should be systems, sized in every school, high or low. But to reap the full benefit of this sort of education, the family circle must be made an auxiliary school, where pure morality is taught by precept and example, and to complete the system of moral training, the Churches should erect a higher standard for membership, exercise greater vigilance to keep out the unworthy, and a closer scrutiny into the deportment of those already within them. It is not the size of the congregation, but christian purity of its individual members, that commend its doctrines, and invite sinners to enter therein, as a safe refuge from the allurements of temptation and the dangers of evil associations.

Will the new-born year live, to witness earnest efforts to inaugurate such a work of reform? Will the Churches, the schools and the home circles, combine to inaugurate it? Will the young and the old, of both sexes, begin the task of self-examination, with a firm resolve that the next new year shall find them freed from the bondage of evil passions and vicious habits? Judging the future by the past, there is little ground to hope for an affirmative answer to the foregoing questions. But if one, only, in each family, will cultivate an earnest conviction that such reform has become a necessity, will foster an honest desire to participate in the good work, there is no calculating the amount of good that may be accomplished before we again have an opportunity to wish our patrons a happy new year!

COL. JOHN S. KERR, Esq., of Memphis, called to see us last Wednesday. He has some aspirations for the Governorship. He is an intelligent, energetic man. His division of the State has the right to claim the next nominee for Governor, and if Mr. Kerr should receive the nomination, he will, doubtless, be cordially supported by this division of the State.

A GENTLEMAN, from a distant part of our State, was on a visit to our city during Christmas week, and expressed himself highly pleased with our town and people. He stated that, for the size of the place, he saw more morality and good order than he had seen anywhere else. It is true that we have a very moral, industrious, intelligent class of citizens, which, coupled with the healthfulness of our locality, should insure us a great influx of population. Health and morality far outweigh dollars and cents.

If the ministers of the different churches in the city will furnish church items we will take great pleasure in publishing them. We endeavor to put up items of this character, but cannot always know what is going on, and it will be an easy matter for them in charge to furnish them.

MANY of our friends did not forget us during the Christmas holidays, but came up and paid their accounts. New let the balance of them do likewise, by squaring their accounts with the printer for the New Year.

FOR SALE—A good wood stove, with a large drum attached. It is suitable for a small church, school house or office. Price, $10. Call at this office and examine it.

The Festival given to the children of the M. E. Sunday School, on Christmas eve, was in many respects a delightful affair. The managers failed to secure a large hall, and the Festival was held in Mr. Couts' late furniture store, containing several rooms, which displayed the fine and pleasing effect that would have been produced in one large room, where the eye could have taken in the very neat arrangement of the whole programme, besides there was too much of a jam for comfort, the crowd being estimated at 800 persons. The tables were bountifully supplied with all the substantial and every delicacy that heart could wish, and under the supervision of Mrs. D. McCauley, and her kind assistants, was beautifully arranged. The children, for whose special benefit it was prepared, were admitted first, and we never saw a better served or better pleased set in our life, and in honor to the donors, they did the subject full justice, each one with sparkling eye and joyful heart, setting the little man and lady to perfection. We heard many of them after thanks to Mrs. Couts, Mrs. Moore and others, for their extreme kindness and attention to the table. After the children were served, then the old folks with young hearts were invited to the repast where an abundance awaited them.

The art gallery was a source of great amusement, and all who saw the portrait of the handsome individual, concurred in the opinion that it was the handsomest one in town. Mr. Tom. Hyman made a most excellent Santa Claus, and distributed the presents as well as any man could under the circumstances, he being literally besieged on every side. In the department of Santa Claus, the most judiciously selected. There were some disaffection, but it was no fault of Santa or the managers, for they did all in their power to do exact justice to every one entitled to a present. The small room was so completely filled that it was impossible to carry out this interesting feature in that good order and style it was intended.

To the management, and especially to Mr. and Mrs. Couts, the children feel grateful for the extensive preparations for their gratification on that occasion, which would have been a complete success in a hall of sufficient size to have held the large crowd in a comfortable manner.

FRANK PHILLIPS, last week, arrested and put in jail in this place, a negro named Andrew Hopson, who shot an negro at Dover Furnace, Stewart County some time since. He was captured by mistake for Haywood, but upon being arrested confessed that he was a fugitive from Stewart County, giving his name and offense.

Phillips has notified the Sheriff of Stewart County and the prisoner is in jail here awaiting his arrival.

We have forwarded a large and substantial list of subscribers to the Courier-Journal in connection with our paper. The drawing came off on Thursday, but we go to press too soon to know who are the lucky ones. We hope to be able to state next week that some of the names we sent up were favored by the wheel of fortune.

MR. J. M. DABNEY, who has acted as an efficient cashier at B. F. Coulter's for a long time, has gone to Evansville to engage in business. He is a good business man and a thorough gentleman. Success to him wherever he may go. His brother, A. S. Dabney, will take his place at Mr. Coulter's which is a guarantee that he is all right.

We learn that the people in and around Erin, got up a Christmas tree, filled with suitable presents for all, and was so conducted that it was a source of great enjoyment to all who participated. There was a superb gold watch suspended on the tree, worth $150, as a present to an estimable lady formerly of this city.

THE suspension of one issue of our paper will make some of the reading matter appear rather old, as this is a fast age, when the news becomes stale in a day or two. Next week we hope to be up with the times, and furnish the latest weekly intelligence for the benefit of all.

R. H. PICKERING, the worthy superintendent of the M. E. Sunday School, was recipient of a handsome and useful present, at the Festival, on Christmas eve. May he live long to enjoy the gift and the esteem and confidence of the children who presented it.

BROCKMAN & BRINGHURST have dissolved partnership, and Sam is "going it alone." He may be found at his new quarters, between Franklin Hall and Harrison & Shelby's new warehouse, where he is prepared to furnish buggies, wagons, etc., at the lowest figure. See his advertisement.

THE CHRONICLE corps return many thanks to their kind friends, Messrs. Bloch Bros., for substantial Christmas presents. They annually remember the printer. May prosperity and happiness ever attend this liberal, deserving firm.

The citizens in the vicinity of Greenwood Avenue held prayer-meeting at the residence of Mr. Wm. Orrell, on Christmas night. It was a pleasant meeting, and a befitting time to render prayer and praise to the Redeemer of mankind.

THE Banner thinks Nashville ought to have the tobacco trade that comes from Hopkinsville because Nashville has greater facilities for moving tobacco than Henderson. Possibly Henderson thinks differently.

THE Columbia Herald and Mail have consolidated, to be issued in future as Herald and Mail. The Herald has always been one of our favorite exchanges, and now the two combined will make one of the best papers in the State.

As we were not present, we do not know enough to speak in detail of the Christmas tree at the Episcopal church, but we learn that it was a magnificent one, and gave general satisfaction to all concerned.

At the last regular meeting of Young Enfranchisement No. 23, I. O. O. F., the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: S. E. Atkins, C. P. E. L. Smith, H. E. J. A. Bates, Treas.; T. T. Willis, J. W. Young, R. S. J. A. Bates, Treas.

DR. H. E. BEACH, Dental Surgeon, at his residence on Franklin street, next door to the M. E. Church, is prepared to do all work in his profession in the very best style and on the most reasonable terms. His office is fitted up with all the latest improvements in dentistry, and satisfaction is guaranteed in all his work.

S. E. RAMEY & Co., have opened a livery, feed and sale stable on the old brick corner where they propose to furnish everything in their line at reduced prices. They keep the best of stock, vehicles, etc., and are determined to give satisfaction to their patrons. See their advertisement.

HARRISON & SHELBY, in their new warehouse, the "Gracey House," are ready for business, and their friends and patrons can bring on their tobacco as soon as they like, and their business will receive the same prompt attention as heretofore. See advertisement.

THREE and six dollars, are, as far as we can learn, the offerings for loose tobacco, heretofore, but it is rather early in the season, to consider prices as at all settled. The wheat promises fairly wherever it was judiciously sowed.

NEEDS REPAIRING.—Front street, between Commerce and the freight depot, is in a very bad condition and should be attended to at once. We call the attention of the street committee to this locality.

MORTON'S "Home and School" is on our table; but as it reached us just as we are going to press, we can do no more than notice its welcome arrival, and wish it all the patronage it so richly merits as an educator.

POSTAL cards cost the government $1.25 per thousand, and the government sells them for $1.00 per thousand. It is estimated that 1,320,000 will be required for 1874.

SOME have expressed surprise that Grant said nothing about the grab in his message. He is not quite fool enough to tread on his own corn.

CLASS-MEETING at the residence of S. A. Caldwell, on Greenwood Avenue, next Thursday night. All are invited to attend.

OUR carrier, John Bailey, desires to return his thanks to our city subscribers for their very liberal patronage on Christmas day.

A FINE riding mare belong to our friend, Capt. Ed. H. Hunt, got hurt with a hay fork a few days since, which caused her death in a short time.

OUR friend, W. A. JACKSON, East, has removed back to the city, and has "gone into winter quarters" at his residence on Greenwood Avenue.

CHRISTMAS is over, now let us all go to work, do all the good we can, and resolve to do better in the future than we have ever done in the past.

REV. J. P. McFERRIN spent the holidays with his family in this city. He is a fine type of manhood, and we wish him and his lady a long lease of life.

McNABB was captured at Paducah and Sheriff Beaumont brought him back and placed him in jail.

THE Granges in the Clarksville Tobacco district will hold a meeting at the Hook and Ladder Hall, in this city next Monday. A large attendance is expected.

PETE JOHNSON, of Dallas, Texas, sent a daily paper from that point, during the holidays. We hope Pete enjoyed a happy Christmas.

QUARTERLY term of the County Court commences next Monday. Circuit Court also begins next Monday—Judge Rice to preside.

We return the thanks of our "better half" to our lady friend in Henderson County, Ky., for a nice Christmas present.

SOME of the ladies complain of having their bustles smashed at the recent festival. They should leave them off when they go into such jams.

HERNDON, GOLD & Co., of Trice's Landing, will have a tobacco sale next Wednesday.

Sourier-Journal appears in a new dress, and looks as neat as a new pin.

OUR efficient County Court Clerk issued 316 marriage licenses for the year 1873. Whites 122; blacks 154.

COMPTROLLER's warrants are in demand, with none in the Nashville market. Brokers offer to pay 90 cents.

HOOS are active in Nashville at $5.15 a 25 per cwt. gross.

1874, prices on fine Clothing at Pittman & Lewis. Moving prices make lively trade.

GOLD was steady in New York Wednesday last, closing at 110.

Tennessee Bonds closed in New York at 80 for both issues.

Cotton is quiet and the New York market irregular at 16 1/2 for middling.

DISCOMBOLOLATED!

As Panic Prices have become so very fashionable, V. L. Williams would like to say a word or two in regard to the so-called P. P. S. This very clear to a casual observer that these panic prices have become very much discommodated and disturbed, or, as stated above, discommodated, by the still lower prices at which V. L. Williams is offering his stock of Boots, Shoes, Hats, Caps, Gent's Furnishing Goods, &c., at No. 23 Franklin street. The stock he offers you to select from has no superior, either in this market or elsewhere, for cheapness or durability, are not mixed with old stock or damaged goods, but nice, new, fresh goods, bought from manufacturers direct, at lowest cash prices and sold at as short profits as any living man can offer.

Since the opening of the fall trade it has been, and will continue to be, my constant aim to sell goods at prices commensurate with the wants of my customers. As evidence of this, many of those who have traded with me this fall will testify that my goods are sold at lower prices than many of those who sell at the "Panic Prices." "At Cost," &c. The "Panic" has not effected me, simply because I sell a superior line of Boots and Shoes, and at less prices than they have ever been offered in this market, and in this connection I would say, please consider me a competitor of any place you may designate, and before you leave Clarksville to buy cheap goods, call on V. L. Williams, who will fit you up for as little money as it can be done at any place in the Union.

A nice line of Cal Boots, any size from 6 to 13, at $4.00. Call and see them. The $1.50 Ladies' Calf Shoes, the $1.50 Men's Kip Brogans, the $3.50 Kip Boots, and in fact all these goods which I have brought to your notice through my advertisements, have given to the best of my knowledge, entire satisfaction. I claim to sell Boots and Shoes cheaper than any in the market, and reasonably too, for when I go east to buy goods I spend my entire time amongst the shoe factories of the east, selecting the cheapest and best goods, and do not have my time divided between two or three branches of the mercantile business, and at home I manage my business on strictly economical principles.

When in need of Boots or Shoes, Hats, &c., please give me a trial before you buy. My store-room is No. 23 Franklin street.

Very truly yours,
V. L. WILLIAMS.
